

AQUASENSOR - wireless networks of sensors to optimize water resources

(Ref. MAC/1/C121)

Characterization:

The project's main objective is to get a prototype based on a wireless network formed with sensors and actuators. The network should be able to operate independently and will serve to automate installs irrigation and fertilization.

Remarks:

Project with the financial implementation started in May 2009.