

PI SPECIAL - Special Education Interactive Platforms

(Ref. MAC/1/M041)

Characterization

PI SPECIAL project offers the design and production of a new generation interaction devices that can be used for students with physical disabilities (simple and severe) so that they can access, create and manipulate content and educational resources.

Observation:

Project with the financial implementation started in May 2009.