

III International Meeting of Universities with Africa

The IIIrd International Meeting of Universities with Africa will take place at the University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria between the 10th and the 14th of October. It is promoted by the Committee of Rectors of the Spanish Universities (CRUE) and supported by Universia..

This III International Meeting intends to continue with the works of the previous editions celebrated in Madrid (October 2007) and Maputo (Mozambique, October 2008) respectively.

Its objective is to reinforce the knowledge, the cooperation and the collaboration between Spanish and African Universities through the harmonisation of cooperation strategies. It also aims to support the consolidation, both sustained and sustainable of the high education by means of the upgrade of the potentialities and demands as well as through the creation of synergies and the identification of assertive cooperation environments. Contact:
